The new season may be months away, but the Hot Stove League will dial up the heat this weekend.

On the heels of the Cubs Convention, the three-day SoxFest will kick off in the Loop on Friday afternoon.

On Sunday night, the Pitch and Hit Club of Chicago banquet will take place in Lombard. The Chicago Baseball Museum will present the Jerome Holtzman Award to White Sox legend Minnie Minoso that evening.

Let's talk some ball at our booth before the festivities.
