

Several Events to Mark Santo Celebration

Posted on Tuesday, July 17

Here is the schedule of activities for Ron Santo's Hall of Fame induction this month:

- Saturday, July 21: Cubs Fan Fest

The Cubs-sponsored event will be held in the lawn section of the Fenimore Art Museum from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. (EDT) in Cooperstown, N.Y. The casual party will celebrate Santo's life and induction with other members of the Cubs community, which include WGN Radio broadcaster Pat Hughes, former players Billy Williams, Fergie Jenkins, Randy Hundley and Glenn Beckert, and team owner Tom Ricketts and family members. Includes a live question-and-answer session, video of memorable career moments, music, food and drinks.

A suggested $10 donation at the event will help benefit Chicago Cubs Charities and the not-for-profit National Baseball Hall of Fame.

- Sunday, July 22: National Baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremony

The event will take place at 1:30 p.m. (EDT) outside of the Clark Sports Center in Cooperstown. The event is expected to last two hours. Seating is unlimited and free of charge. A blanket or lawn chair is recommended.

- Sunday July 22: Hall of Fame induction viewing party

Concurrent with the ceremony in Cooperstown, the Cubs will host a viewing party at the Captain Morgan Club adjacent to Wrigley Field at 11 a.m. Attendees will be able to watch the ceremony live on televisions from 12:30-2:30 p.m. near the Santo statue at the corner of Addison Street and Sheffield Avenue.

- Friday, July 27: Ron Santo Day

The first Cubs home game following the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will be dedicated to Santo in the ballpark where he spent the brunt of his major league career. An on-field ceremony will feature members of his family before the 1:20 p.m. game versus the St. Louis Cardinals. The first 10,000 fans will receive a commemorative Ron Santo Hall of Fame plaque.

Tickets can be purchased at the Wrigley Field box office, the team Website (www.cubs.com) and via telephone (1-800-THE-CUBS).
